

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., April 22, 1893.

The Superintendent, U. S. Mint,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

The Secretary of the Treasury has agreed to put the enclosed lettering on the reverse of the souvenir quarter dollar in lieu of that on the model returned you to-day, viz: the words "Board of Lady Managers" around the design, and at the bottom "Columbian Quar. Dol."

You will please use this lettering on the coin if it is practicable to do so.

It is desirable that the word "Columbian" should go on if possible.

Very respectfully,

C. A. Leach
Director.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 181

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
April 22, 1893

The Superintendent, U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

The Secretary of the Treasury has agreed to put the enclosed lettering on the reverse of the souvenir quarter dollar in lieu of that on the model returned you to-day, viz: the words "Board of Lady Managers" around the design, and at the bottom "Columbian Quar. Dol"

You will please use this lettering on the coin if it is practicable to do so.

It is desirable that the word "Columbian" should go on if possible.

Very respectfully,
E.O. Leech
Director.